OUT OF CÓRDOBA is a documentary film, directed by Jacob Bender, about the legacy of the Spanish city of Cordoba and its meaning for our times. The film explores the dramatic biographies of Averroes (Ibn Rushd) the Muslim, and Rabbi Moses Maimonides the Jew, the two leading personalities of medieval Islamic Spain, and its heritage of "convivencia" (a culture of coexistence). Filmed in the USA, Spain, Morocco, France, Italy, Egypt, Israel and Palestine, and 10 years in the making, the award-winning film explores contemporary relations between Muslims, Jews, and Christians, the revolts for human rights in the Middle East, the struggle against religious extremism and xenophobia. OUT OF CÓRDOBA has been screened over 500 times at universities, film festivals, mosques, churches, and synagogues around the world, including a special screening at United Nations Headquarters.

A discussion will follow the screening with Dr. Ana Börger-Greco, a University of Pennsylvania PhD who taught graduate courses on the Convivencia for over 40 years.
